Zero Tolerance for Drug Use Or Possession

The use or possession of any illegal drugs will not be tolerated anywhere inside or outside the venue. Narcotics officers will be working both areas and enforcing all drug related laws. If you notice an attendee using or distributing illegal substances, please notify security personnel immediately.

Medical Call Protocol

Please familiarize yourself with the following for making a medical call:

-STAY CALM - MAKE THE CALL

Switch to channel 1 on your radio and call for assistance on the Event Command Center (ECC) channel.

-STATE THE SITUATION

Include your name and location, using three (3) points of reference.

“This is Bradley, and I need medical help. I am in the hall, stage right, about 20 feet from the barricade.”

-DESCRIBE THE PATIENT

Include their apparent physical condition and other relevant info.

“The patient is unconscious. He is male, approximately 20 years old.”

-LOOK FOR HELP

Protect the patient and continue monitoring the EMERGENCY channel. Flag down medical staff when you see them.

Medical Services - Individual Attendee Emergencies

In the event you come across someone who is in need of immediate medical attention, find a staff person with a radio or notify the nearest security personnel or peace officer. If you're not sure whether it's an emergency, assume it is and get help right away. Medical staff has a "no questions asked" policy; please assure the guest that they will not get in trouble for seeking help and try to make the guest feel as comfortable as possible. Please remember to remain with the guest until medical attention arrives.

FIRST AID IS LOCATED NEAR THE EAST ENTRANCE

MEDICAL IS LOCATED NEAR THE SOUTH ENTRANCE

Attendees will be advised to follow the guidelines below in case of emergency:

Important Health & Safety Tips

-Recognize signs of trouble, including headaches, nausea, confusion, blurred vision, inability to talk, racing heartbeat, vomiting, muscle tremors, convulsions, discolored lips or nail beds, or shallow breathing. If a patron complains of just one of these signs, seek medical help immediately.
-Mixing drugs (including alcohol) can increase the chances of dangerous drug interactions and overdose. If a patron is concerned about having ingested illegal substances and is visibly drunk, please seek help immediately.
-Encourage patrons to stay hydrated by drinking water or non-caffeinated sports drinks (to replenish electrolytes).
-Alcohol and caffeine dehydrate the body.
-Encourage patrons to eat if they haven't yet!

General Crisis Procedures

In the event of a crisis, please encourage attendees to remain calm. Ensure that everyone around you is safe or can move calmly to a safe area. If there is an injured patron(s), please seek security personnel, a member of the medical staff, or someone with a radio and ensure help is on the way. Remain with anyone requiring medical attention until help arrives. Remember the following guidelines during the crisis and as you seek to quickly communicate with security personnel or your supervisor:
-Be prepared and proactive.
-Stay calm and under control.
-Be honest and credible with your information; Communicate only confirmed facts.
-Accurately inform patrons in a timely manner before rumors start to spread.
-Express empathy and compassion for those involved with the crisis/accident.
-Know the event evacuation routes in advance.

Staff Injuries

If you are injured on the job, stop working and report the injury immediately to your supervisor and first -aid personnel as well as an incident reporter, so that the appropriate paperwork can be completed.

Dress Code, Sun Protection + HYDRATE, HYDRATE, HYDRATE!

Comfortable, closed toe, athletic shoes. Comfortable mask. Don't forget your sunscreen!
Please don't forget to hydrate and stay hydrated throughout the event!
*All staff are required to wear Hi-Vis vests during the show.
